GRAND PRIZE WINNER NOTIFIED

Mrs. Dot Coleman, Office Manager at Lawson Ford, Inc., and Mr. Dick Bland, Vice President and General Manager at Lawson, are shown calling Mrs. Alice Jean Childress of Appomattox to tell her she was the winner of a Hamilton Beach Fry All, grand prize given on Saturday, October 1st when Lawson had the showing of the 1978 new Ford and Mercury cars and trucks.

W. LLOYD VAUGHAN, Editor and Publisher of the TIMES-VIRGINIAN, is shown talking with Mrs. Joe Canada, right, and Mrs. Richard Wingfield left.

Mrs. Canada is the wife of Joe Canada, candidate for Lt. Governor of the State of Virginia in the upcoming General Election in November.

Chairmen Thank Blood Donors

Mrs. Nina Beasley and Mrs. Jennie Towns, Chairman and Co-Chairman of the Red Cross Blood Program for Appomattox County would like to take this means of expressing their appreciation for the success of the Bloodmobile held here on September 27, 1977.

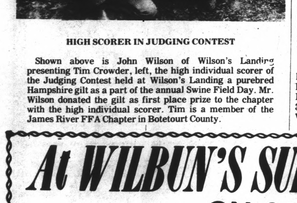
The quota for this visit with 110 pints and a total of 126 pints of blood were donated. Naturally, first the donors who came out and gave blood are to be congratulated.

Also, a special thanks to all the workers who helped on the day of the visit, and to the Junior Woman's Club who recruited nurses, nursery workers, canteen, typists and labelers. The canteen was furnished by the Woman's Club for this visit. It would be impossible to name each and everyone who helped, however, Rev. Earnie Lucas should be recognized for the help with advertisement, Donald Moses for making and distributing posters, C. L. Perdue for placing the two large signs and the Times-Virginian for publicity.

Again, thanks for the new in every way and especially to the donors.

First time donors were Kay Bondurant, James Bondurant, Polly Elizabeth Carter, Jennette Christian, Wayne Ellzey, Jr., Berkley Davis Garrett, Jr., Diane Gilliam, Larry Inge, Mary C. Jendzurski, Hazel Kendricks, Richard Lee Martin, Dale Mayberry, Sue Moore, Katherine Poble, Debra Rolland, Donald R. Scruggs, Andrew T. Stahling, and Mildred Tyree.

Donors receiving one gallon pins were Louise Thompson, Margaret Blazer, Alice Clapp Martin, Linda Kay Lewis, Karen Adele Knapp, David Lee Grishaw, Gerald David Wilbun, and Michael Edwin Wallace; receiving two gallon pins were Carolyn M. Mayberry, Ruth S. Cordell, Nancy Elizabeth Hall, Carolyn K. Dickerson, and Abner Donald Scruggs; receiving four gallon pin was Gertrude Jarrell; Alta T. Evans was the one who got her five gallon pin; and at the top of the list was J. NEWTON JENNINGS who received his 10 gallon pin.



HIGH SCORER IN JUDGING CONTEST

The Pastor Speaks

Abraham prayed a very simple prayer, yet sublime, in Genesis Fifteen and verse two. He said, "Lord God, what will you give me?" When thinking of the further reaches of prayer I thought about this verse. It is so simple like the words of a small child before the child has learned not to ask for things for itself. If the friend of God could speak thusly to his God, we may in all simplicity do so too. "Lord God, what will you give me?" Just as a child passes from the less to the greater in desire, so we find in our Bible that the desire of man, as he walks further on with God, grows and grows till we come to such words as Paul wrote that reach far beyond any earthly good. "That I may know Him, and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings" and soon that other words follows, so often forgotten in hurried prayer. It is the first good that promised and this peace. "Lord God what will you give me?" "The peace of God which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." Is not peace the answer?

Over 300 Attend Swine Field Day

The second Annual Swine Field Day was held October 1, 1977, at Wilson's Landing in Appomattox, Va.

The Appomattox FFA Chapter in cooperation with Mr. John Wilson, presented a program on swine production to 14 FFA Chapters around Virginia. The program consisted of demonstrations on castration, cutting needle teeth and ear notching. There were discussions on Breeding and Selecting Swine, and on Record Systems. The highlight of the day was a judging contest. The James River FFA Chapter from Botetourt County won the trophy for 1st place.

Mr. Wilson presented Tim Crowder, high individual in the contest, a Hampshire gilt for the James River FFA Chapter.

During the day, tours of the farm were conducted by Appomattox FFA members. To top the day off, the Wilsons prepared and served a delicious pork burger lunch.

The day was a learning and fun experience for everyone. Thanks goes to Mr. Wilson and the many other supporters and sponsors supporting this activity of the Appomattox Chapter of Future Farmers of America.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

WHAT ARE 'AMPLE GOODS'?

Lesson for October 23, 1977

Background Scripture: Luke 12:13-31; I Timothy 6:6-21
Devotional Reading: Isaiah 40:27-31

Rev. Althouse

The so-called Parable of the Rich Fool was a significant illustration for those who listened to Jesus. They could easily visualize the farmer whose problem became, not how do I produce more crops, but what do I do with what I have?

Although we no longer live in an economy dominated by agriculture and many of us have never been in the role of the farmer, still the parable is just as rich and meaningful for us today as it was then.

The unwise steward

We can understand the farmer's dilemma because we too live in an economy where the problem is basically, not how to get enough to get through the next day, but how to use wisely the surpluses God has given us. If we have financial problems (with some exceptions), it is a matter how to afford a higher style of living than one of putting food on the table and a roof overhead.

Like the farmer, we are tempted to decide that the answer is "larger" barns...translated into current terminology, that may be bigger house, larger car, more powerful corporations, etc. We seem to reason that if a certain amount of physical goods satisfies certain basic needs, then a whole lot of those goods must be even better. Of course, it rarely works out that way.

That was what happened to the Rich Fool. Although he decided that bigger and better barns would be his security, he found suddenly that they weren't what he really needed anyway. He had indeed been a fool.

Not only had he foolishly thought that security was to be found in bigger and better barns, but he had also mistaken his soul for his body. "And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years" (Luke 12:19). He was speaking to his soul, but he was talking about physical goods. He didn't seem to realize that physical goods are for the body, but the soul needs spiritual nourishment and value. Thus, when, suddenly, his physical body was taken and all that remained was his soul, he was greatly lacking in the spiritual goods that his Soul required.

The unexpected hour

He failed to realize—as so often we do too—that "life is more than food, and the body more than clothing" (12:23). The Gospel of Jesus Christ came, not denying or ignoring the realities and blessings of our material existance, but proclaiming that there is a reality that goes far beyond this physical life we live on earth, a reality that alone remains when the material existence is over.

As University of Notre Dame Professor Morton Kelsey has observed, it is contemporary man's failure to realize that there is both a physical and spiritual reality that has made life today so empty for many and our religion so unsatisfying. The "ample goods" that are the quest of every person's earthly quest can only be the spiritual treasures that survive the rust and decay of the material world.

A county-wide contest is being sponsored by the Appomattox Council of Extension Homemakers, for the purpose of selecting a design for an Appomattox County flag.

The flag would be made by a committee of county homemakers after the winning design is chosen by a panel of qualified judges, and approved by the County Board of Supervisors.

Requirements for the design contest are as follows:

1. The design should be drawn in full color on 8½" x 11" sheet of bonded white paper.

2. The county seal of Appomattox should be incorporated into the design.

3. Any person, male or female, of any age may enter.

4. Only one design per family entering the contest will be accepted.

5. Must be resident of Appomattox County as of July 1, 1977.

6. The design should be submitted no later than December 31, 1977, by mailing it to P. O. Box 488, Appomattox, Va. 24522.

The judges will pick the winning design on or before January 15, 1978. The winner will be announced in the Times-Virginian and on WTTX. The prize for this contest will be a United States Savings Bond.

If more detailed information is needed, call 352-8244.

Richmond Woman Solves Lifelong Weight Problem With NaturSlim

"NaturSlim is the easiest way to lose weight I have ever tried," says Mrs. Delma Selden, secretary at a bank in Richmond, Va. "And it works. I have lost 30 lbs. in two months!" Mrs. Selden is one of the thousands who drink NaturSlim every day for breakfast and lunch, and enjoy a normal, well balanced meal for dinner. Like many, she has no time for exercise routines or meetings, so NaturSlim fits her lifestyle beautifully.

"I have been on one diet or another all my life," says Mrs. Selden, "and all of them left me weak, hungry, and disappointed. Last winter I really started putting on weight. Every Monday I would go on some diet, and it usually lasted till noon! But NaturSlim really satisfies my hunger, and it's so good to be able to look forward to dinner. I feel better and less hungry than when I was eating the usual three meals a day! It must be because NaturSlim is so nutritious."

One thing that has really helped Mrs. Selden is the positive support from friends and acquaintances. "Rarely a day goes by without someone saying how much better I look," she says. "And the nice part about it is that I won't gain that weight back. When I lose a few more pounds, I'll just drink NaturSlim for breakfast, as recommended, and eat normally otherwise. NaturSlim is a program I can live with. I recommend it to anyone who really wants to lose weight."
Do not accept substitutes. NaturSlim is not sold by any other brand name.
